Topic: Client Preparation Meeting For Headshots

Points earned for completion of requirements below. No partial credit. Use complete sentences to answer all questions.

Make contact with your theater “talent” that you have been paired with for the Headshots assignment. In person or over the phone, discuss the Client Preparation Handout with each client. Have a conversation each client. Interview them to find out more about them and their needs. In order to get credit for this homework, you need to do the following. Ask the client questions that lead to answering these questions. Do this for each client:

Client #1: Name: _____

1. What type of performing job is the client most interested in?
2. Is there a style or specific look that the client is interested in? If so, please describe? What is the client going to where in the shoot? Be specific.
3. List at least one professional goal (acting job, etc.) that the client has.
4. Go online and look for at least 3 examples of headshots that might work well for this client. Print them on the laser printer, and turn them in with this homework.
