

Open Project Proposal

For the last assignment of the semester, you will have an “Open Project”. That means you will be able to choose your emphasis for the project.

Your project must use people in the frame in some manner.

Write down the following information in complete sentences.

1. What people or kinds of people do you want to shoot and why?
2. What is your concept for the project?
3. What kind of lighting do you want to use? Studio? Portable strobe? Hotshoe Flash? Available? Why?
4. What lighting styles do you want to use and why? (high key, low key, glamour, etc)
5. Do you want color or black & white? Why?
6. What camera choices and considerations are you using and why? (depth of field, motion blur, focal length, etc)
7. What editing choices are you choosing and why? (high contrast, low contrast, desaturated color, etc)
8. What other information is important to you in this project?
